
THE RYKERT TRIO

The Rykert Trio is a unique blend of family harmonies who sing contemporary and southern gospel, in addition to power anthems and classical hymns. The group has been singing and ministering in churches and performing arts centers throughout California, Oregon and Washington since 2016.

The Rykert Trio has emerged triumphantly from devastating news they received in 2015. Joe, (father) was diagnosed with Stage 4 Lymphoma. After the rigors of chemotherapy, a bone marrow transplant, radiation treatments and with many friends and family praying for him, his cancer is now in remission. The three of them are soloists in their own right, but had never performed together as a family group before. Joe had singing commitments lined up, but didn't know if he'd have the strength to do them (after chemo, etc.). Joe asked his kids to back him up and thus the Trio began. Joe and the kids felt the calling of the Lord to minister and share with others their testimonies and God's faithfulness working in and through their lives.

The Trio's first album "Sometimes It Takes a Mountain" was released October, 2017. The Rykert Trio sincerely hopes and prays that their story and their music will encourage all to trust God with what ever challenges they may be facing. Their second album, "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" was released in April, 2018. You can find their first two projects on all musical platforms for downloads and streaming. Now in 2019, they have begun the production and recording process in creating their first of all original music. This album feature's the title song, "Healed" written by their dear friend, Joey Coray, including many more powerful songs written by some of gospel music's greatest song writers today.

Joe, who is classically trained has sung numerous tenor (opera: Townsend Opera and musical theatre: Modesto Performing Arts) leads for over 30 years. Joe has been a featured soloist at First Baptist Church Modesto, Modesto Covenant Church, Immanuel Christian Reformed Church (Ripon Oratorio Chorus - Messiah), Modesto and Merced Symphonies, and more. He's sung for President George Bush, Barbara Bush, Colin Powell, Ernest Gallo and many other dignitaries. Joe is also a father to five girls, one son and is married to his wife Tammy; who he and the kids call "Momager" as she plays a huge role in keeping them organized.

Noel grew up in a musical home where voice lessons were given daily, attending countless Operas and Musicals. She has been involved in music her entire life. She has a natural God-given talent and has sung in several musicals, starting at the age of 6 and has also performed as a soloist for several years. Besides singing, Noel is a hairstylist, mother to three beautiful children and is married to her husband, Michael.

Joseph also grew up in a musical family and is now classically trained in voice and guitar and holds a Bachelor's degree of music from Azusa Pacific University (2014). He is currently touring worldwide with Broadway's Phantom from 'Phantom of the Opera', Jeremy Stolle and his Broadway band 'The Unreachable Stars'. He has performed lead roles in many Opera and Musical Theater productions and has toured as a primary tenor soloist with several singing groups from APU. He's sung in 35 US states and 4 international countries. He is also an alumnus of Interlochen Center for the Arts, Michigan. Joseph's day-to-day life keeps him very active as a vocal coach, substitute teacher and booking agent for many groups like his own.

The Rykert Trio's ultimate goal is to share the gospel of Jesus Christ through their unique story and music. They endeavor to bring hope to others either battling cancer or facing any health challenges.
